RENO, FRIDAY, JUNE 5, 1880. P. M. calling for any of the letters will please call at the office.

Notice.

The store of Knust & Jones will hereafter be closed on Sunday. This is an excellent move and one that should commend itself to all business men.

From the East.

Capt. A. D. Griffin has returned from the East, where he has been for the last year trying to enlist capital in the Peavine mines.

The county is to be asked to buy Anderson's toll road running from Reno to Fish Springs. One thousand dollars is the price wanted.

The only output of the Jones & Kindred is 40 tons. The ore continues to average well, with occasional streaks of exceeding richness.

There will be a meeting of the Reno H. brew Benevolent Society this afternoon. New officers are to be elected.

A strike in Jupiter caused that Bodie stock to advance more than one hundred per cent. yesterday.

About 300 men are now at work on this end of the Carson and Colorado Railroad.

The weather is warm, and if it keeps on this way will soon be red-hot.

J. C. Hageman will leave next week for the Cincinnati Convention.

The Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., meets in Virginia to-morrow.

County Clerk Parish is still below. He will be home soon.

The Board of Commissioners meet to-morrow.

The census enumerators are hard at work.

The Truckee still booms.

HURRAH!!

A Railroad North From Reno and Another One South.

Of More Importance Than the President.

At Last! We are Happy! Reno the Coming Town of Nevada.

We have been virtuous and we are correspondingly happy. Reno is to have a railroad north and another one south, and work is to commence immediately. Such is the glorious news we were told by ex-Governor Woods and Mr. John T. Davis last night.

A Better Market.

The picture men who were lately in Reno took those they were unable to sell here out to Eureka, and from the following item from the Sentinel of Friday it will be seen that the Base Ringers gave a good deal better prices than were offered in Reno.

Church Notices.

Services in the Episcopal Church today at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Rev. W. J. Jenvey officiating. Sunday School after the morning service.

Rev. M. Morgan will preach in the Congregational Church to-day. Morning theme, "The Child of Grace;" evening theme, "The Petition." Sunday School will be held immediately after the morning service.

There will be divine service at the M. E. Church to-day at 11 A. M. and 7:15 P. M., Rev. C. McKelvey officiating. Seats free. All are invited. Sabbath School at 1:30 P. M.

D. Banks McKenzie will officiate at the Baptist Church to-day, both morning and evening. All are invited.

The Result.

The complimentary benefit tendered Rev. C. McKelvey last Friday evening resulted in his receiving about $100. He appreciates the kindness that prompted the benefit more than he does the pecuniary profit. He expects to leave on a visit to his Canadian home sometime the latter part of June and will be absent about two months, but will return invigorated and ready for work again. His pulpit will be supplied by various ministers during his absence.

State Fair.

The Trustees of the Agricultural Society had a meeting yesterday afternoon, and went to work in earnest on State Fair matters. Another meeting will be held this afternoon and the speed and premium programme discussed. Suggestions from stockholders will be thankfully received.

The Gazette intimates that the tramps just ordered out of town were the gang mentioned in the JOURNAL who were matched for a pedestrian contest. On the contrary it was the Gazette force who were meant. They are the only go-as-you-please fellows in this section.

The Republican ratification meeting will take place to-morrow evening—provided the nominations are made in time.

The usual fine lunch at Bechtel's to-day. At the bar can be had all of the delicacies in drinks or cigars.

Knust & Jones call attention to their fine stock of groceries, etc.

A special tea train passed through going East last evening.

THE PRESIDENCY.

No Nominations—Adjourned Until Monday.

[Special to the JOURNAL.] CHICAGO, June 5.—The Convention was called to order at 7:15 P. M. It is reported on good authority that if there is no nomination before the fourth ballot is reached, Iowa, Connecticut and Indiana will cast their votes for Garfield.

A roll of States is being called for the selection of National Committee. Hale moved that the roll of States be called for the presentations of candidates for nomination by the Convention. Being debated.

Representative Joy, of Michigan, put Blaine in nomination, and at the end of his remarks, cheering lasted for 10 minutes, many delegates rising to their feet and swinging their hats and handkerchiefs. Frank M. Pixley, of Cal., seconded the nomination, and Frye, of Maine, also made an electric speech. Drake, of Minnesota, presented the name of Windom and was loudly cheered. When the State of New York was called Conkling took the floor to nominate Grant, and received a tremendous ovation, many delegates and the audience rising and cheering. Conkling said Grant was the most illustrious man living, and could carry many doubtful States, North and South.

Conkling finished—9:45 P. M.—when there was loud and prolonged applause for Grant. When Ohio was called Garfield took the platform to nominate Sherman, and was as well as the others cheered for some time.

At the end of Garfield's speech more cheering was indulged in and continued for some time.

It is now thought a ballot will be reached by 11:30 P. M.

Mr. Billings, of Virginia, now speaking in favor of the nomination of Edmunds. Edmunds' name eliciting much applause.

Cassidy, of Wisconsin, now presenting name of Washburne. Washburne's name received with considerable applause. Cassidy said two best men are Washburne and Edmunds. Brandage, of Connecticut, seconded the nomination of Washburne.

This is last speech—now 11:33; doubtful if ballot is taken to-night. Bridge finished at 11:48 P. M. Delegate moves to adjourn. Great confusion. Convention adjourned until 10 A. M. Monday.

Reform Club.

Notwithstanding the many entertainments during the week, a full house greeted the regular Reform Club meeting. Miss Kitty Loomis and those who were to have taken part in the drama, were not present so that the programme was quite short. Ada Finlayson and May Wheeler, two youthful musicians, gave a lively instrumental duet. Mrs. I. B. Marshall read the story of a common sorrow, a life blighted by love and death. Frank Lane and Drew Taylor played "Home, Sweet Home" and "Sweet Bye and Bye" upon harmonica. They were recalled to the stage and gave the air, "The Little Old Log Cabin in the Lane." Explaining the unparalleled good that came from all sorts of boys was Miss Frankie Gibbs' task for the evening. Miss Gertrude Peacock and Miss Laura Caldwell sang the ballad, "Give One Little Thought for Me." Miss Flora McKay sang the popular air of "The Young Man Across the Way." Judge Webster, the lecturer of the evening, chose as his subject, "Us Four and No More." The address was pointed and short. The terrible selfishness of humanity in general, and lawyers in particular, was held up in a good strong light.
